

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So strong liquids, if used too often, will injure the teeth. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lousy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" the head and how they "perk up" the spirits. 50c and 25c a box. All druggists. —Adv.

FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN

Women Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for Health Restored.

In almost every neighborhood in America are women who have tried this standard remedy for female ills and know its worth.

Athol, Mass.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me a world of good. I suffered from a weakness and a great deal of pain every month and nothing brought me any relief until I tried this famous medicine. I am a different woman since I took it and want others who suffer to know about it."—Mrs. Arthur Lawson, 549 Cottage St., Athol, Mass.

San Francisco, Cal.—"I was in a very weak, nervous condition, having suffered terribly from a female trouble for over five years. I had taken all kinds of medicine and had many different doctors, and they all said I would have to be operated on, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me entirely, and now I am a strong, well woman."—Mrs. H. Roskamp, 1447 Divisadero St., San Francisco, Cal.

For special advice in regard to such ailments write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its many years' experience is at your service.—Adv.

New York Man Saves Wife in Nick of Time

"My wife was unable to eat even the lightest food, and had fallen away to a living skeleton. She could not even keep doctor's medicine on her stomach and was tortured with pain. On the recommendation of a friend I bought a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy and she is right now and has gained forty pounds." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convert money refunded. Liggett-Riker-James.—Adv.

AUTOS KILLED TWENTY-NINE IN THE CITY IN APRIL

Report of Highway Society Shows a Decrease in Traffic Accidents as Compared With 1917.

According to the report of the National Highway Protective Society, issued to-day, the number of persons killed by vehicular traffic on the streets and highways of New York State in April decreased as compared with the corresponding period of last year. Throughout the State of New York, including New York City, for April, forty-five persons were killed by automobiles, against sixty-seven in April, 1917.

In New York City last month automobiles caused the death of twenty-nine, twenty-seven and twenty-five, compared with thirty-eight by automobiles, seven by trolleys and nine by wagons in April, 1917. Outside of New York City sixteen were killed by automobiles and one by trolley, as compared with twenty-nine by automobiles a year ago.

In New Jersey ten persons were killed by automobiles in April, as compared with seventeen a year ago.

Automobiles are warned of the danger at highway railroad grade crossings, as evidenced in the increasing number of deaths. In New York State ten persons were killed at railroad grade crossings last month, as compared with five a year ago. In New Jersey four met death, as compared with three in April, 1917.

HYLAN ATTACKS AMSTER; HEALTH INQUIRY TO GO ON

Mayor Tells New Commissioner No Influences Can Stop Investigation.

Mayor Hylan wrote a letter to Dr. Royal H. Copeland, his new Commissioner of Health, telling him that his predecessor, Dr. J. Lewis Amster, "either had not the courage or the qualifications to conduct a proper inquiry, or else that outside interests who had reason to fear the result of the proposed investigation controlled his action."

The Mayor urges Dr. Copeland to continue the investigation of the Health Department begun by Dr. Amster and the Civil Service Commission. The Mayor denies that the Health Department investigation was prompted by politics, for which charge he blames antagonistic newspapers, and says in his letter to the new Health Commissioner:

"I say to you now and to the press who have made these malicious and false statements that such statements will not prevent me from doing my fullest duty to the people who have placed their trust and confidence in me by electing me as their Mayor."

"I urge again that you make a fearless and honest investigation. Permit no outside influence, however powerful, to deter you from giving the best that is in you to make our city what it should be, the safest and healthiest place in the world in which to live."

HIGHER TAXES NEXT STEP FOR NATION, SAYS M'ADOO

Not Applied Strongly Enough as Against Bond Issues to Raise Money for War, He Declares.

ROCHESTER, May 1.—William G. McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury, is inspecting the United States School of Aerial Photography here to-day. Mr. McAdoo is scheduled for two Liberty Loan addresses here to-day. This will end his tour and he will return to Washington to-night.

Speaking at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon, Secretary McAdoo said:

"We are going constantly to have to appeal to the country for money to carry forward the war. There are two ways of raising money. One is taxation and the other is bond issues. I believe that a fair equisite between taxation and bond issues is the fair way of financing this war. I can say frankly that I don't think we have that equisite now. I don't think we have applied taxation strongly enough."

"The thinking men of America will realize later that a larger measure of taxation is not only necessary to finance this war, but it is the soundest thing that we can do for ourselves. We are not going to effect the essential economies, we are not going to prevent the waste which I think is one of the most crowning examples of America's prodigality, unless taxation is applied more heavily."

Secretary McAdoo said he didn't believe the Russian collapse is so serious a thing for the Allies as many people think it is, and predicted that in time it would react in favor of the Allies.

CONCERTS OF A DAY

Ethel Leginska Plays For Endowment Fund; Caruso Sings Finely

By SYLVESTER RAWLING

ETHEL LEGINSKA, the eccentric but material English pianist, gave a recital in the Municipal Auditorium of the Washington Irving High School last night for the benefit of the Endowment Fund of the People's Symphony concert. Come to think of it, we should miss something of charm and fascination if the little woman suddenly were to abandon her effective affectations and poems. Her programme comprised Schumann's sonata in G minor, a Chopin group, Liszt's "Maze of the Box" and examples of Liszt, all played at her best, which means much.

The audience made more noise than any I can recall. What with the unseemly hanging of entrance doors, the clatter of feet of late-comers upon the carpeted wooden floor, and the chatter of groups here and there, small wonder that Miss Leginska, shall I say, lost her temper. Significant pauses and withering looks were of no avail. Her patience exhausted, she halted abruptly in the middle of a Chopin étude and declared that she would not proceed unless there were silence. A hurricane of applause attested the sympathy with her of a vast majority of the audience. Perhaps, Mr. Arens, who heads the organization and its auxiliaries, a fluent and persuasive speaker, will prefer next season's concert with a lecture on deportment at musical performances. There is a popular belief that "real" music lovers are to be found only among such constituencies as those of Mr. Arens. Well, musical appreciation means much for civilization. Sometimes I think good manners mean more.

In the intermission, Sarah Barnett, one of the teachers in the school, made an effective appeal for subscriptions to the Third Liberty Loan. Responses were numerous, including several of $100.

While Miss Leginska was playing in Irving last night, Ethel Caruso was singing at the Astor Hotel for the Mozart Society, the last appearance of the distinguished tenor, it was announced, for the season. "Cavalcade Aida" and "Una Furtiva Lagrima" were his principal numbers. Mrs. Noble McConnell, the president, after the concert, gave a supper at which the chief guests were Gov. Whitman and Mrs. Whitman.

At the Brooklyn Academy of Music last night Carolyn N. Kirwin, soprano, gave a benefit recital for the Cantonment Fund of the Knights of Columbus. In Newark the three days' Music Festival was begun.

The Symphony Society, Walter Damrosch conductor, announces that Willem Wilke, formerly cellist of the Kneisel Quartet, has been engaged as first cellist of the orchestra in place of Engelbert Hornig, who is serving with the 85th Regiment at Camp Upton.
